

Disclaimer:

This sample recommendation letter is provided for informational purposes only and does not constitute legal advice.

EB-2 NIW Recommendation Letter Sample 1: From an Employer

To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing to support [Applicant Name] for the EB-2 National Interest Waiver (NIW).

As [Applicant]'s supervisor at [Company Name], I have worked closely with them on many key projects. Their leadership on [specific project or result] was a major reason for our company's success and helped move [specific field/industry] forward.

[Applicant]'s work has significantly helped our company. Their work in [describe specific achievement or project] led to [mention concrete results]. Because of this, [Applicant] is seen as an important leader at [company].

[Applicant] has also made important contributions outside of our company. For example, [mention specific examples like national or international conferences, collaborations, or awards]. Their influence goes beyond our company, helping to set industry standards and create positive change in [area of expertise].

I strongly believe [Applicant Name]'s work will help the wider U.S. economy. For this reason, I fully support their EB-2 NIW petition.

Sincerely,

[Name, Title, Company, Contact Info]

MANIFEST

manifestlaw.com

Disclaimer:

This sample recommendation letter is provided for informational purposes only and does not constitute legal advice.

EB-2 NIW Recommendation Letter Sample 2: From an Industry Peer

To Whom It May Concern,

I am happy to write this letter to support [Applicant Name]'s application for the EB-2 National Interest Waiver. I have worked with [Applicant] for the past [number] years in [industry], and I have personally seen their amazing contributions. [Applicant]'s work on [specific project or initiative] was a key part of [describe the result or impact].

What makes [Applicant] different is their ability to create new ideas and challenge old ways of thinking. For example, [provide a detailed example of the applicant's work, innovation, or achievement that demonstrates their unique contributions]. This work has been noticed by [mention media coverage, awards, or recognition]. It has also influenced many people in the field, including [mention any significant individuals or organizations that have been impacted by their work].

[Applicant]'s impact on the field is big and will last a long time. Their work has improved industry standards and created new paths for future growth. Because of their exceptional ability and the national importance of their contributions, I highly recommend [Applicant Name] for EB-2 NIW approval.

Best regards,

[Name, Title, Affiliation, Contact Info]

MANIFEST

manifestlaw.com

Disclaimer:

This sample recommendation letter is provided for informational purposes only and does not constitute legal advice.

EB-2 NIW Recommendation Letter Sample 3: From an Academic Mentor

To Whom It May Concern,

I am pleased to support [Applicant Name]'s petition for EB-2 NIW status. I had the honor of being [Applicant]'s teacher and mentor during their time at [Institution]. From the very beginning, [Applicant] showed intelligence, creativity, and commitment to their research in [specific area].

[Applicant]'s work on [specific project or research] led to [describe outcome, like significant publications, awards, or breakthroughs in the field]. Their research is well-known for its potential to [describe the broader impact of the applicant's work, like improving public health, driving technological advancements, etc.]. The effects of their findings are still being felt in both academic and professional groups, which shows [Applicant] is a leader in their field.

I fully recommend [Applicant Name] for EB-2 NIW status. Their continued work will surely help their field and the wider U.S. national interest.

Sincerely,

[Name, Title, Institution, Contact Info]

MANIFEST

manifestlaw.com